

CALL FOR PAPERS

JMPEE Special Issue dedicated to the Ampere 12th Conference

The Journal of Microwave Power and Electromagnetic Energy (JMPEE) is pleased to announce a Special Issue of the Journal dedicated to the Ampere 12th Conference, which will be held in Karlsruhe, Germany, on September 7-10, 2009.

Invitation to Contribute Papers

JMPEE invites attendees of Ampere-12 to submit their papers for publication in this Special Issue. The accepted papers will be published by JMPEE online and in print in the beginning of 2010.

Acceptance Criteria

All papers contributed for consideration of publication in this Special Issue will be reviewed according to the JMPEE's standard acceptance criteria of validity, relevance, importance and originality.

Submission

Manuscripts shall be submitted directly to JMPEE, as instructed in JMPEE's website <http://www.jmpee.org>, by email to admin@jmpee.org. The deadline for manuscript submission for this Special Issue is September 25, 2009. Please be sure to note on your submission that the manuscript should be considered for the "Ampere-12 Special Issue".
